“A New Beginning”

Speaker: Debbie Laginskie

Women of our generation need hope: the kind of hope that rescues, strengthens, and gives us a secure anchor to hold onto when everything else gives way.

She shares in a way that will enable a wide variety of ages and personalities to relate, bringing a balance of comfort and challenge through her realness, warmth and strong convictions.

*Debbie is married and a mother of three adult children and a grandmother of one. She has taught evangelistic and discipleship bible studies for nineteen years and has been speaking to a wide variety of women's groups across Ontario and Quebec for ten years, both in local churches and with Women Alive. She also serves as Director of Women's Ministries in her local church. Most recently, she has published her first book; You Don't Have to be Perfect.*

Join Debbie this weekend as she brings hope to us in a variety of ways: through sharing her own struggles in life, laughter and by bringing God's Word practically and inspirationally, applying it to everyday life.
